Something very special for readers of The Indianapolis Sunday Star, Beginning Sunday, November 7th

See These Advance Pictures

of the beautiful street costumes and charming house gowns recently imported by the female stars of Filmland, including

June Caprice Priscilla Dean Geraldine Farrar Mary Miles Minter

Fabulously priced furs of rare chinchilla worn by Dorothy Cummings, a marvellous gown of raspberry velvet with hat to match as specially posed for us by Mary Miles Minter, and half a dozen other costume photographs of interest to every woman form a special feature of THE INDIAN-APOLIS SUNDAY STAR'S Motion-Play Magazine on and after Nov. 7. Seven exclusive photographs of Pearl White taken on her Long Island farm give you an intimate glimpse of this rising young film star. Other new and exclusive photographs portray the big dramatic scenes and incidents of the new screen plays soon to be shown locally.

Will Rogers Art Acord "Bill" Duncan Charles Hutchinson

will be shown in feats of daring and break-neck situations incident to their new plays, of which these are advance photographs. Everybody interested in the new moving picture plays (and who isn't?) will find in Motion-Play Magazine, an absorbing pictorial forecast of coming events with bright, pithy editorial captions that will amuse, edify and enlighten every member of the family.

A Delightful Treat A Special Surprise A Novel Innovation

Commencing Sunday, November 7, readers of The Indianapolis Sunday Star will receive, in addition to the regular paper, an 8-page photographic section, handsomely printed on super-calendered stock by the beautiful gravure process, and containing 35 or more supremely interesting pictures of Plays, People and Events in the moving picture world. You get this costly and beautiful

MOTION-PLAY MAGAZINE

Free with The Indianapolis Sunday Star, Commencing Sunday, Nov. 7th

It is specially edited to interest every member of the family. There is no other publication like it. In a series of special photographed views, enlivened by scintillating captions, it gives each week a terse and graphic presentation of the big human interest scenes from all the newest film productions with special personal glimpses of the home life, social activities and daily diversions of famous stars and near-stars of Filmland.

A Complete and fascinating Moving Picture Entertainment for all members of the family.

A Beautiful Magazine Free with Next Sunday's Star

Every purchaser of The Star next Sunday is entitled to receive, in addition to the regular paper, the new and beautiful eight page photographic section, a special pictorial magazine exquisitely printed by the new gravure process on heavy calendered paper.

ALL THE Moving-Picture Plays

of special or unusual interest are photographically presented in rapid-fire review, and crisp, pithy, comment on plays and actors is so interwoven with

35 Fascinating Photographs

as to give the reader a bright sketchy and entertaining glance at the important doings of the screen and the social activities of the males and females who love to send their private snap shots to MAGAZINE MOTION-PLAY editor.

Place Your Order Early

This Unusual and Beautiful

Motion-Play Magazine

in a series of specially pose' news-pictures with terse and witty screen captions, gives a complete and fascinating review of current and forth-coming attractions in the moving picture world. Thrilling scenes from the new film are presented in advance by special courtesy of the producers. Home and social activities of the leading stars are shown in exclusive photographs specially posed for our editor. Young and old will appreciate and enjoy this unusual treat.

7 BIG Human-Interest Scenes

Appear exclusively in next Sunday's MOTION-PLAY MAGAZINE specially photographed from the newest big film production not yet launched—a gorgeous Oriental story of love and mystery entitled

The Price of Redemption

which has more blood curdling adventures and more thrills to the minute than a blind baby navigating an airplane. These seven scenes start off with a mad elephant and wind up with —but why tell?

Get Your Copy Next Sunday

Something Else—A $1.50 NOVEL

Remember

A late $1.50 to $1.90 NOVEL of interest and action begins each Sunday in

The Indianapolis Star

Don't Miss It

Just Tell Your Newsdealer to Save You a Copy

A Good Novel in Book Form Now

Costs at Least $1.50 to $1.90

The Indianapolis Star, however, beginning Sunday, November 7th, will publish a new novel each week—giving you $1.50 to $1.90 worth of thrilling fiction for not more than any daily and Sunday paper regularly costs you.

Start "The Gold Girl" Next Sunday In The

Indianapolis Sunday Star

and continue through the week, completing it Saturday.

SUNDAY

Something very special for our readers next Sunday

See These Advance Pictures

of the beautiful street costumes and charming house gowns recently imported by the female stars of filmland, including

June Caprice
Priscilla Dean
Geraldine Farrar
Mary Miles Minter

Fabulously priced furs of rare chinchilla worn by Dorothy Cummings, a marvellous gown of raspberry velvet with hat to match as specially posed for us by Mary Miles Minter, and half a dozen other costume photographs of interest to every woman form a special feature of next Sunday's MOTION PLAY MAGAZINE. Seven exclusive photographs of Pearl White taken on her Long Island farm give you an intimate glimpse of this rising young film star. Other new and exclusive photographs portray the big dramatic scenes and incidents of the new screen plays soon to be shown locally.

Will Rogers
Art Acord
"Bill" Duncan
Charles Hutchinson

will be shown in feats of daring and break-new situations incident to their new plays, of while these are advance photographs. Everybour interested in the new moving picture plays (at who isn't) will find in MOTION PLAY MAG ZINE an absorbing pictorial forecast of comevents with bright, pithy editorial captions to will amuse, edify and enlighten every memeof the family.

SUBSCRIBE TODAY
FOR THE WORLD-HERALI

A Delightful Treat A Special Surprise A Novel Innovation

Commencing Sunday, Nov. 7, readers of the World-Herald will receive in addition to the regular paper, a special 8 page photographic section, handsomely printed on super-calendered stock by the beautiful gravure process, and containing 35 or more supremely interesting pictures of Plays, People and events in the moving picture world. You get this costly and beautiful

Motion-Play Magazine

Free with next Sunday's WORLD-HERALD

It is specially edited to interest every member of the family. There is no other publication like it. In a series of specially photographed views, enlivened by scintillating captions, it gives each week a terse and graphic presentation of the big human interest scenes from all the newest film productions with special personal glimpses of the home life, social activities and daily diversions of famous stars and near-stars of Filmland.

A complete and fascinating Moving Picture Entertainment for all members of the family.

Be sure that a copy of this beautiful magazine is included with your World-Herald next Sunday. If you are not a subscriber get on our lists without delay.

Get the World. Ferald. next Sunday without fail

Something very special for our readers Sunday, Nov. 14th

See These Advance Pictures

of beautiful costumes, thrilling stunts and startling situations from the new photoplays. Interesting introductions to motion picture stars in their latest roles:

Alice Jovce Ruth Roland Earle Williams Nazimova Tom Mix May Allison

Once to Every Woman

The old, old story of the conflict between ambition and love. Its joy and pathos all pictured on one page. A Dorothy Phillips film.

Dead Men Tell No Tales

Look these pictures over Sunday—you may want to be forewarned before the inevitable shiver begins its jazzy course downward from the back of your collar.

Gowns-A real art fashion show

Furs, feathers and silk-fashions you will see in the new films.

Greek Muse and Modern Jazz

Mildred Davis
Margaret Loomis
New steps and new lines in drapéry.

Betty Compson

a bewitching full page portrait. Her rare beauty mirrored perfectly.

And a Houdini super-stunt— Bound on a locomotive pilot,

Everybody interested in the new moving picture plays (and who isn't) will find in MOTION PLAY MAGAZINE an absorbing pictorial forecast of coming events with bright, pithy editorial captions that will amuse, edify and enlighten every member of the family.

> ORDER TODAY FROM YOUR NEWSDEALER

A Delightful Treat A Special Surprise A Novel Innovation

Commencing Sunday, November 14, readers of The Journal will receive, in addition to the regular paper, a special 8 page photographic section, handsomely printed on super-calendered stock by the beautiful gravure process, and containing 45 or more supremely interesting pictures of Plays, People and Events in the moving picture world. You get this costly and beautiful

MOTION-PLAY MAGAZINE

Free with next Sunday's Journal

It is specially edited to interest every member of the family. There is no other publication like it. In a series of specially photographed views, enlivened by scintillating captions, it gives each week a terse and graphic presentation of the big human interest scenes from all the newest film productions with special personal glimpses of the home life, social activities and daily diversions of famous stars and near-stars of Filmland.

A complete and fascinating Moving Picture Entertainment for all members of the family.

Be sure that a copy of this beautiful magazine is included with your Journal Sunday, November 14. To avoid disappointment, it is well to place your order early with your newsdealer.

Get the Minneapolis Journal Sunday, Nov. 14, without fail

Something very special for our readers every Sunday

A Delightful Treat A Special Surprise A Novel Innovation

Readers of The Washington Herald now receive, in addition to the regular paper, a special 8-page photographic section, handsomely printed on super-calendered stock by the beautiful gravure process, and containing 35 or more supremely interesting pictures of Plays, People and Events in the moving picture world. You get this costly and beautiful

MOTION-PLAY MAGAZINE

Free with every Sunday's Washington Herald

It is specially edited to interest ever member of the family. There is no other publication like it. In a series of specially photographed views, enlivened by scintillating captions, it gives each week a terse and graphic presentation of the big human interest scenes from all the newest film productions with special personal glimpses of the home life, social activities and daily diversions of famous stars and near-stars of Filmland.

A complete and fascinating Moving Picture Entertainment for all members of the family

Be sure that a copy of this beautiful magazine is included with your Washington Herald next Sunday. To avoid disappointment, it is well to place your order early with your newsdealer.

Get The Washington Herald · every Sunday without fail